Is the name still available?

This facility enables you to check the current status of a .nl domain name. The status of a name can be any of the following:

- free: the .nl domain name is still available for registration
- withdrawn: the .nl domain name is barred from registration
- excluded: the .nl domain name is excluded from registration
- requested: an application for the .nl domain name is being processed
- active: the .nl domain name has already been registered (If you want to know who has registered a .nl domain name, tick the 'Extended' box. You will then be given the 'whois' information on the organisation that has registered the name.)
- in quarantine: this domain name's registration has been cancelled. Following cancellation, a domain name is placed in quarantine for forty days.
